is one of the most favoured short yet exciting treks in the exquisite Annapurna region (<https://www.marveladventure.com/annapurna-trekking>) of Nepal. This trek is a slightly extended form of the ever-popular Ghorepani Poonhill Trek (<https://www.marveladventure.com/ghorepani-poonhill-trek>) with trail to Ghandruk, the beautiful ethnic village of Gurung people being the addition. Well-renowned for its Himalayan views, beautiful floras and faunas and highly enriched culture and traditions, this Ghorepani Poonhill Ghandruk Trek is worth a go for those wishing to enjoy fascinating natural and cultural aspects of Nepal.

The trek begins from Nayapul and goes through the picturesque ethnic villages and blooming rhododendron forest. Along the way we tackle the challenge of climbing 3300 steps up to Ulleri which is quite demanding, but the beautiful sceneries all around makes up for it. As we trek through the densely forested path of Ghorepani, you can witness the charming red blanket of rhododendron flowers, many such beautiful vegetation that garnish the trek throughout and a chance to encounter many rare floras and faunas in the Annapurna Conservation Area.

A short hike uphill from the beautiful village of Ghorepani takes you to Poon Hill, the best sunrise viewpoint of the trek impeccable for admiring the marvelous Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges in the sparkling sunlight during the dawn and the dusk. Widely known as the Photographer's paradise, Poon Hill is a wonderful place to snap splendid photos of the ever sparkling snow-capped mountains and the stunning sunrise view. After spending some quality time in Poon Hill, we resume our trek through beautiful forest and streams to Ghandruk, the popular Gurung village.
